

June 21 - July 4, 2020

SPANISH IMMERSION & ORGANIC FARMING

IN THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY

Led by: Analisa Taylor (analisa@uoregon.edu)

Gain advanced Spanish language skills and community-based knowledge in agroecology, food justice, and immigrant rights on this two-week summer “study away” program near Portland, Oregon. This Spanish immersion program offers an intercultural experience without having to leave the U.S. Spanish majors can earn four upper-division “expertise/in-residence” credits and fulfill the experiential learning requirement. Students must have completed two 300 level Spanish courses and have a 3.00 GPA in Spanish by the start of the program.

Priority Application Deadline: February 15, 2020

Final Application Deadline: March 15, 2020

541-346-3207
geo.uoregon.edu
geoinfo@uoregon.edu